

Hi folks,

Hope you all had a lovely weekend, especially considering the great weather we had. I'm looking forward to seeing the pictures of what you all got up too. It was fantastic seeing all the hard work you have been doing at home. I was very impressed with the standard of work being shared with me, let's keep it going this week.

Below I've outlined your work for this week. As always try and complete the core subjects Irish, English & Maths everyday but don't worry if you miss out on something anyday. You can upload a selection of the work completed throughout the week. I will also upload activities on Seesaw during the week but don't feel under any pressure to complete all. I will try and make sure that I've uploaded the Maths answers each evening by 7pm.

I can be contacted on principal.courtnacuddyns@gmail.com if your parents have any queries.

SESE: This week I want you all to do a mini project for me on any world leader, past or present. Therefore we could do it on Winston Churchill, Eamonn deValera, John F Kennedy, Donald Trump, Kim Jong-un, Michael D Higgins or any other historical leader from around the world.

You might include date of birth/date, where he/she was from, childhood, rise to power, any major conflicts/wars they were involved in, controversies, famous quotes and of course some fun facts.

This project is due by Friday but can be uploaded at anytime during the week once you are finished. Remember to take care with presentation, colour, pictures etc

Spellings: Wk 30 Activities G & H

Put 3 of the spellings into sentences.

Poetry: Read the following poem:

I'd like to be a Teabag

I'd like to be a teabag,
And stay at home all day –
And talk to other teabags
In a teabag sort of way . . .

I'd love to be a teabag;
And lie in a little box –
And never have to wash my face
Or change my dirty socks . . .

I'd like to be a teabag,
An Earl Grey one perhaps,
And doze all day and lie around
With Earl Grey kind of chaps.

I wouldn't have to do a thing,
No homework, jobs or chores –
Comfy in my caddy
Of teabags and their snores.

I wouldn't have to do exams
I needn't tidy rooms,
Or sweep the floor or feed the cat
Or wash up all the spoons.

I wouldn't have to do a thing,
A life of bliss – you see . . .
Except that once in all my life
I'd make a cup of tea!

Record yourselves reading the poem or write a new verse or two
