Hi folks,

Well done on another great week of engagement from everyone. The standard of work is fantastic and I'm delighted to see so many faces on our Zoom calls on Wednesdays. I'll be uploading a 'Wellness Wednesday' activity on Wednesday from now on. You'll notice I've only given the core subjects as work that day.

I'll be uploading videos each day for your Maths and Irish activities so please make sure to watch these before attempting your work. If at any point you don't understand a topic or a step in a sum, please drop me a message on Seesaw and I can get back to you with voice message or video.

Enjoy your weekend and we'll chat to you all again on Monday

Regards,

Colm
